

My Mobile 'Education on the move'

Final Conference
London - Friday, June 22

Venue:

Institute of Education - University of London

WLE Centre, Level 4, 20 Bedford Way, London WC1H 0AL.

Nearest tube station: Russell Square; getting there:

<http://www.ioe.ac.uk/sitehelp/1072.html>

Programme

The aims of this conference are to disseminate the findings of the MyMobile project; to raise awareness about mobile learning practices in different European countries; and to discuss potential mobile learning scenarios.

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| 0930 – 1000 hours | Arrival and coffee |
| 1000 – 1015 hours | Welcome by Norbert Pachler (IOE) |
| 1015 – 1045 hours | Katja Friedrich (medien+bildung.com) MyMobile: Education on the move – an overview of the project and its results |
| 1045 – 1115 hours | Coffee break |
| 1115 – 1200 hours | Norbert Pachler (IOE) and Ben Bachmair (IOE) Mobile learning: issues and perspectives |
| 1200 – 1230 hours | Maria Ranieri (UNIFI) and Isabella Bruni (Media Educator): Promoting (disadvantaged young) adults' self-representation skills for job search through mobile storytelling |
| 1230 – 1300 hours | Daniel Zils (medien+bildung.com): Connecting older learners in semi-rural areas: mobile learning scenarios from a cross-generational house in Germany |
| 1300 – 1400 hours | Lunch |

1400 – 1430 hours	Catherine Geeroms and Paul Theux (Media Animation): Sensitising educators and trainers to the opportunity of mobile learning
1430 – 1500 hours	Ben Bachmair (IOE): Mobile portfolios as learning resources for at-risk learners
1500 – 1545 hours	Kevin Burden (Hull): Handheld learning in North East Lincolnshire
1545 – 1600 hours	Maria Ranierai (UNIFI): Mobile learning in adult education: lessons learnt and recommendations
1600 – 1630 hours	Concluding panel discussion moderated by Patrick Verniers (Media Animation)
1630 hours	Close

For more information and downloading the handbook and the reports:

<http://www.mymobile-project.eu/>

